Acknowledgment of use of recording:

I understand that I may not re-distribute this recording in any way. I may use it for in-district training as stated on the Consent to Record document from Jonathan P. Read of Fagen Friedman & Fulfroost LLP, the creator of the content.

“I request that it only be distributed to normal participants and that you request that they only use it for their personal, professional use. I also request that they not distribute it.”

“As I previously stated, our firm policy is to allow clients to use our material for internal training purposes, so long as there is an acknowledgement that the material was created by F3. Since I will be meeting participants for the first time, I extend the invitation for participants to use the material for internal training purposes.”
