

BEFORE YOU WATCH

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Before you show Including Samuel to your students, colleagues, family or neighbors, think about these questions, discuss with another person, or discuss in a group.

Axis Dance Company features dancers with and without disabilities.

- What do the terms “disability” and “inclusion” mean to you?
- Do you or a family member have a disability? How has it affected your life?
- Do you think that children with physical, emotional and neurological disabilities should go to regular schools and be full-time members of regular education classrooms? Should they be part of regular youth organizations, camps and clubs?
- How are people with disabilities typically portrayed in the media—on TV, in movies, in the newspaper? Give examples of this.
- Do you think society has an obligation to provide people with disabilities different or more protection and services than it does for people without disabilities?
- Have you ever felt discriminated against because of your ethnicity, ability, age, gender, sexual orientation, etc.? Describe what happened.
