Novice Financial Education and Training Institute Registration Open

Are you looking for:

- An interesting, hands-on professional development program?
- Active participation lessons that you can take back and use in your classroom the next day?
- Cross curricular lessons?
- Lessons that can change your students' lives?

Then please apply to attend the Novice Financial Education and Training Institute.

What: Financial Education Training and Training Institute for K-12 Educators

Where: Junior Achievement Finance Park, 1610 Perimeter Road, Auburn, WA 98001 (Yes—we will tour the facility!)

When: June 28 and 29

Times: 8:30 am to 4:00 pm

The Financial Education Public-Private Partnership will provide full scholarships on a first-come first-served basis to accepted educators. Space is limited—so register today.

The Institute is a fun and informative two and a half day program, providing many opportunities for discussion and participation. The Financial Education Public-Private Partnership (FEPPP), a committee created by the legislature, is proud to offer this program to you.

You will receive:

- ♣ Training on financial concepts
- ♣ Introduction to financial education methods using age appropriate active participation lessons that both you and your students will enjoy
- ♣ Financial education curriculum
- ♣ Light breakfast and lunch
- ♣ Complimentary Clock Hours
- ♣ Full scholarship to all accepted participants
- ♣ Register here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017novice>

You will receive notification via e-mail as to whether or not you have been accepted to the program within two working days of your completed registration.

School districts of participants who are accepted and fail to attend the training without giving adequate notice (two weeks) will be billed the workshop fee ($200).

This institute and the accompanying materials are made available to teachers through the generous support of FEPPP.

Information about FEPPP can be found at: <http://www.feppp.org>
