Fred T. Korematsu Institute Workshops

Please sign up today! We're less than a week away from our first workshop and are low for sign-ups for Yakima this Saturday. We are trying to get 30 signups for each workshop, and as of now, we have only 13 for Yakima and 19 for Spokane. If we could get a few more signups this week it would make all the difference! For more information on this workshop and to register, please go to: bit.ly/WAeducatorworkshops

INJUSTICE of the WWII Japanese American Incarceration: Workshops for Washington State Teachers

Rescheduled Dates

May 4, 2019
ESD 105
Yakima, WA

June 1, 2019
Spokane Valley
Tech High School
Spokane, WA

8:30am – 4:00pm

Morning Session: Respond, Resist, and Resiliency

Hear from noted scholars to learn about and discuss how Americans of Japanese Ancestry responded and resisted U.S. military orders that forcibly removed and imprisoned them with out due process or evidence of wrongdoing. The workshop will include an investigation of the landmark U.S. Supreme Court case Korematsu v. U.S. and the relevance to legal resistance and urgent issues of today. Educators will receive KI Curriculum Toolkits that include primary sources.

Afternoon Session: KSPS - Injustice at Home

Participants will explore teaching resources that emphasize the implications of Japanese American living outside the exclusion zone during WWII. Five short films created by KSPS - along with lesson plans - will examine choices and challenges that people faced, as well as those who stood against prejudice and oppression.

Presenters:

Karen Korematsu, Founder & Executive Director, Fred T. Korematsu Institute
Leslie Heffernan, Social Studies Coordinator
Morgen Larsen, Teacher Librarian
Starla Fey, Teacher

To sign up, go to bit.ly/WAeducatorworkshops to register for either workshop. The first 30 teachers per workshop will secure spots. Each educator will receive a $100 stipend and clock hours upon completion of the workshop.

The Workshops for Washington State Teachers are facilitated by the Fred T. Korematsu Institute (www.korematsuinstitute.org) and KSPS Public Television, and are made possible with generous support from the Kip Tokuda Memorial Washington Civil Liberties Public Education Program.
