

The Northwest Educational Service District 189 presents the:

SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL LEARNING SUMMIT

NWESD, Anacortes | December 3-4, 2018

Building Resilience & Social Emotional Expertise in Schools

Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) has proven to positively affect a broad range of behavioral, academic and social outcomes in students. The NWESD's Social & Emotional Learning Summit 2018 is designed to offer a variety of impactful, high-quality professional learning opportunities for administrators, teachers, counselors and educational staff who work with, and on behalf of all children.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Day 1:

“Connection is the Key”

The importance of Adult/Child relationships, brain development, and student well-being.

Dr. Jean Clinton

Mona Johnson

Day 2:

“Fostering Professional Resilience and Social Emotional Wellness”

Breakout sessions include:

- Social & Emotional Needs for Highly Mobile Students
- Teaching Pyramid Observation Tool (TPOT)
- Restorative Practices 101
- RULER – Teaching the Skills of Emotional Intelligence
- PAX Good Behavior Game
- National Blue Ribbon School – Weiner Elementary School, Arkansas
- Character Strong
- PAX Good Behavior Game
- Early Learning Modules
- PATHS – Comprehensive Curriculum
- ..and many more

Register >> <https://bit.ly/2MKhxxC>

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: NANCY MENARD
360-299-4020 OR NMENARD@NWESD.ORG

Northwest Educational
Service District 189

Together We Can