

The Northwest Educational Service District 189 presents the:

SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL LEARNING SUMMIT

NWESD, Anacortes | JANUARY 7 & 8, 2020

Building Resilience & Social Emotional Expertise in Schools

This is the second year that NWESD is sponsoring a Social and Emotional Learning Summit. The NWESD's SEL Summit 2020 will focus on Dr. Ruby Payne's work on emotional poverty. We are excited to host Dr. Payne and her colleague Rubén Perez for two days of learning that will address emotional poverty and how to build emotional wealth in your students.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

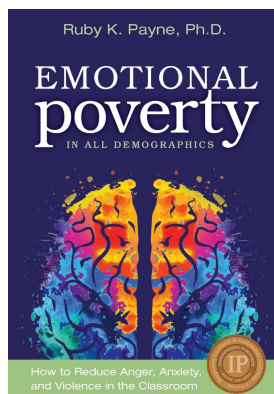

Day 1:
Dr. Ruby Payne

Day 2:
Rubén Perez

This summit will:

- Provide understandings of origins of anger, anxiety, and avoidance;
- Offer a language to talk about brain regulation, integration, and emotional competence;
- Provide tools for educators to address and reduce anger, anxiety and avoidance;
- Help educators manage the "classroom dance" that occurs between the educator and the students;
- Provides the tools to motivate good behavior;
- Identifies the differences in male and female emotional processing.
