

Highly Capable Cooperative | March 19, 2020

Resources

Washington State Legislative Update

- Link to OSPI Legislative webpage

WAETAG Webinars

- <https://www.waetag.com/webinars.html>

Past Professional Development

Smart is Not Easy: What Research Tells us About Highly Capable Learners (Austina DeBonte)

Resources Shared with co-op members:

- Northwest Gifted Child Association
- What Educators, Counselors, and Administrators Need to Know About Smart Kids
- Smart is Not Easy: Grit and Growth Mindset for the Highly Capable Student
- I Think This Student is 2e...But What Kind? Now What?

Rigor and Inquiry in the Humanities and Social Sciences (Curtis Hisayasu)

Resources Shared with co-op members:

- Rigor and Inquiry in the Humanities

Upcoming Professional Development

A Voyage of Discovery: A STEAM Based Approach to Highly Capable Instruction—Chad Norman and Andy Bishop)-Rescheduled-Date TBD

Mind the Gap: Strategies for Adapting Curriculum to Deepen Student Learning

Whitworth University, June 24-26 (price not listed)

Challenging Advanced Learners Using Hi-Cap Plus Professional Development Modules

Dr. Nancy B. Hartzog, UW Robinson Center for Young Scholars, June 30-July 1 @ UW Seattle Campus; cost: $200

Differentiation for Highly Capable Students in K-3 General Education Classrooms

Dr. Nancy B. Hartzog, UW Robinson Center for Young Scholars, July 14-15 @ UW Seattle Campus; cost: $200

Differentiation for All (with an emphasis on highly capable students)—Kate Lindholm, August 5-6, 2020 @ NWESD; cost: $225

Serving our military highly capable students

- Interstate Compact for Military Children
- Military Interstate Children's Compact Commission Resource List