

Best Practices in Standards-Based Unit and Lesson Design

In this Washington State sponsored professional learning series we will explore integrating the formative assessment process into lesson design to deliver lessons and units that reflect the key shifts in language arts instruction according to the Washington State Learning Standards.

You will:

- Learn the four attributes of the formative assessment process.
- Collaboratively develop units and lessons around the ELA Washington State Learning Standards.
- Explore the Digital Library and other resources for exemplar units and lessons.
- Use the EQIP and IMET tools to critique and refine lessons and units.
