

SUMMER EQUITY SERIES

PRESENTERS:

DR. TYRONE HOWARD

DR. KENJUS WATSON

DR. PATRICK CAMANGIAN

DR. JAMELIA HARRIS

FREE trainings for K-12 Washington educators!

All sessions are from 9 – 10:30 a.m.

Earn up to 7.5 clock hours.

brought to you in collaboration with your local ESDs

JUNE 29

Race & Culture in the Classroom

Dr. Tyrone Howard

An introduction to the important role that race and culture have on teaching and learning. Increase racial awareness and improve cultural competence to create an inclusive classrooms for all learners.

AUGUST 3

Examining Implicit Bias

Dr. Kenjus Watson

Engage in active learning activities that consider the origins and impact of assumptions, stereotypes, and microaggressions. Explore strategies for disrupting bias and consider ways to make school spaces more just and equitable.

AUGUST 24 -Next Steps, Dr. Tyrone Howard

AUGUST 10

Humanizing Education for Marginalized Students

Dr. Patrick Camangian

This session will be aimed at shifting perceptions of cultural deficits into potential academic strengths of students and will draw on culturally relevant, critical pedagogical and critical literacies.

AUGUST 17

When They See Us

Dr. Jamelia Harris

This session is designed to provide research-based and tangible tools that educators can use to address racial discipline disparities and keep Students of Color in school.

Register for these online trainings today at:

pdenroller.org/esd112/catalog/115524